2. Actually speaking the grievance of the applicant is such which only the Administrative Authorities and in this case Railway Authorities can redress. Though he has given application for his transfer to some other places but nothing appears to have been done and so he has knocked the door of the Tribunal. The matter is not such which should remain on board of this Bench and so it is being disposed of with a observation that the Divisional Railway Manager, North Central Railway, Allahabad will look into the grievance of the applicant as stated in application dated 4.2.2006 copy of which is Annexure 1 and take suitable action as he deems proper, as expeditiously as possible. <sup>with</sup> In this observation, the O.A. stands finally disposed of.

No costs.
