List revised none appears for the applicant to press this contempt petition. It is settled principle of law that the contempt petition is between the Court and the contemnor. Shri S.C. Mishra, learned counsel for the respondents. We have seen the record of the case.

2. Paragraph No. 6 of the Supplementary counter affidavit clearly indicates that as per direction of this Tribunal dated 28.09.2007 passed in OA No. 956 of 2007 the representation of the applicant was considered and disposed of by the Post Master General, Kanpur and copy thereof has been annexed with Suppl. CA. In view of the aforesaid submission and the fact we find that the respondents have not committed any wilful disobedience of the order of this Tribunal. The contempt petition is dismissed. Notices issued to the respondents are discharged.
