Delivered by Hon'ble Mr. A.K. Gaur, Member (J)

Learned counsel for the applicant stated that cause shown in filing the delay condonation application is not plausible and reasonable and it does not inspire confidence at all.

2. Having heard the parties counsel and gone through the application particularly paragraph 31, 32 and 33 of the OA, we are satisfied that no case

h is made out by the applicant. The OA is inordinately time barred and the delay is not condonable. Accordingly, the OA is dismissed on the ground delay and laches. No costs.
