HON'BLE MR. ASHOK S. KARAMADI, MEMBER-J

Learned counsel for the applicant seeks time to file the rejoinder affidavit to the counter affidavit, which was filed on 19.11.2007. As on today the applicant's counsel has not filed any rejoinder affidavit or supplementary affidavit contravening the contention of the counter affidavit which he has received earlier, but today he seeks time for filing the same and to ascertain with regard to the orders passed by the respondents. The said request of the learned counsel for the applicant cannot be sustained having regard to the fact that the learned counsel for the respondents has served the counter affidavit on 19.11.2007 to the applicants and thereafter as on today he is unable to make his submission, but on the contrary he seeks time. While deciding the contempt proceedings we should be slow in exercising this power at the instance of any of the parties concerned. It is necessary to ~~should be looked~~ into the matter and the proper course for the ends of justice and not at the instance of the parties concerned; having regard to the fact we are not inclined to grant any time and accordingly his request is rejected.

2. On perusal of the pleadings this contempt petition is filed against the order dated 13.02.2007. By the said order the respondents are directed to consider the representation of the applicant's dated 21.02.2006 in accordance with law and the rules there under. As the respondents have failed to pass any orders in compliance of the said order, this contempt application was filed.

3. On notice the respondents have filed the counter affidavit contending that even though there is a delay in filing the counter affidavit the same may be condoned and the counter affidavit be taken on record.

HC 9.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, and further it is stated that the respondents have passed the order on 12.10.2007. A copy of the same is produced as Annexure-1 to the counter affidavit and, therefore, it is prayed that having regard to the fact that the respondents have taken into consideration of the impugned order passed by this Tribunal, and there is no violation of the order, and they have passed the order on the representation submitted by the applicant, in that view of the matter seeks for dismissal of the contempt petition.

4. We thought it just and proper to look into the order passed which is impugned in the contempt petition; having perused ~~of~~ the same we are of the opinion that, only the direction was issued to the respondents to consider the representation of the applicant, as the respondents have passed the order dated 12.10.2007.

5. We do not find any justifiable grounds and any necessity to continue these contempt proceedings; accordingly the contempt proceedings are dropped. Notices issued are discharged.

6. After the order is passed the learned counsel for the applicant submits that he may be given liberty to agitate his grievances if any against the order dated 12.10.2007 passed by the respondents. In view of his submission the liberty is given to the applicants to pursue their remedies in accordance with law.
