ORDER

By Hon'ble Mr. A.K. Gaur, Member-J :

ⁿ
^{Rm} Innocuous order dated 18.9.2007 passed in OA No.1508 of 2006, to decide the representation of the applicant, has not been complied with by the respondents. The respondents have taken a plea that copy of the representation has not been received by them. Learned counsel for the applicant submitted that copy of the representation has been sent by Registered Post. We do not find any justification for not deciding the representation of the applicant. However, last opportunity is being granted to the respondents to consider and decide the representation of the applicant within a period of one month from the date of receipt of copy of this order.

h

2. With the above observation, the contempt petition is dismissed. Notices are discharged. If the applicant is still aggrieved he may approach this Tribunal for redressal of his grievance. If representation of the applicant is not disposed of within this period, the Tribunal might be constrained to pass adverse order against the answering respondents.
