ORDER

HON'BLE MR. A.K.GAUR, MEMBER-J

List has been revised and none appears for the applicant to press the Contempt Petition.

2. It is the settled principle of law that, in view of D.N. Taneja vs. Bhajan Lal reported in 1998 (3) SCC 26, Contempt is a matter between the Court and the contemnor. Even if the counsel for the Petitioner is not present, we proceed to decide the C.P.(C).

3. We have carefully seen the counter affidavit filed by the respondents, wherein it is mentioned that, in compliance with the order dated 9.7.2008, the department has passed a speaking order dated 24.12.2008, and as such, the order passed by the Tribunal has been complied with.

4. We have given our thoughtful consideration to the pleas taken in the counter affidavit, and we are firmly of the view that, the respondents have not at all committed any willful disobedience of order and direction of the Tribunal.

5. Hence, C.P. (C ) is closed. Notices discharged.
