OA/239/87

05/10/1987

Per : Hon'ble Mr. P.H. Trivedi : Vice Chairman

This Tribunal had ordered on 21-4-1987 in OA/187/87 that the application for re-instatement should be decided by the appellate authority. Appellate authority has decided that the applicants are not to be re-instated, till their appeals are decided nor should they be paid their back-wages from the date of dismissal. The appellate authority has now passed orders following the inquiry report of the Board of Inquiry on 18/06/1987, except in the case of one Thakorlal who is in U.S.A. and had not appeared before the Board of Inquiry. Against these orders of the appellate authority the applicants have filed applications OA/368/87, OA/369/87 and OA/370/87 before this Tribunal which have been posted on 23/11/1987 for hearing. This renders the case OA/239/87 infructuous. With this observation the case is disposed of.
