Neither the petitioner nor his advocate present.

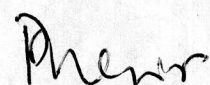

The case was earlier adjourned at the instance of the petitioner and as a ^{to} it is the case of 1987 we are inclined to dispose of it ^{on} merits. Mr.B.R.Kyada, learned advocate for the respondents states that the petitioner might be said to have no cause ^{to} survive because on 27.10.89 a promotion order of ~~top~~ passenger driver was been given to him. The petitioner has impugned the order dated 22nd July, 1986 in which 31 persons have been promoted but his name is not found in it. The reply of the respondents to that is the petitioner was in the scale of Rs.290-400 and was due to be promoted on the upgraded basis of Rs.330-560 as Goods Driver w.e.f. 1.1.1984. This promotion was eventually given to him from 19.11.1987. The petitioner was called for viva voce test for the post of Driver Grade 'C' vide letter dated 20.5.1985 but he could not find ~~at~~ the place on the panel notified on 8.11.1985. Thereafter, however, the benefit of pay was extended from 1.1.1984 retrospectively.

The post of Driver 'C' is a selection post and because the petitioner could not make ~~any~~ grievance that he could not be promoted earlier.

2. On a persual of the impugned order, we find that the promotions ~~in that therefore~~ were on a prvisional basis and in terms subject to result of the Supreme Court decision in pending writ petition. The learned advocate for the respondent could not intimate to us the latest position on this. Our ~~conslusions~~, findings and directions therefore have to be subject to ~~that~~ the Supreme Court's decision if any.

3. After hearing the learned advocate for the respondents and on perusal of the pleadings, we do not find that the petitioner has satisfactorily made out his case regarding the relief sought by him of promotion to Driver 'C' either in terms of his juniors having an inferior right of promotion or ^{of a} challenge ^{to} the impugned order of 22.7.1986. Accordingly, subject to the ~~ob~~servations stated earlier, the petition has no merit and is rejected. There shall be no order as to costs.
