In the reply, the respondents have stated,
"If any work of casual nature is to be performed in near future, the respondents are bound to offer re-engagement to the senior persons according to the combined seniority list as directed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Inderpal's case". It is stated by the learned Railways advocate that, accordingly, some of the applicants whose turn to be re-employed has arrived, have actually been re-engaged and even the other applicants will be considered for re-engagement when their turn for the same ~~arrived~~^{coming} according to their seniority on the combined seniority lists.

2. In view of this, Mr. J. J. Yajnik seeks permission to withdraw the application. Permission granted.

Application stands disposed of as withdrawn.

No order as to costs. If at any stage, any applicant feels that, though he was entitled to be re-engaged on the basis of his seniority on the combined seniority list, he was not re-engaged and if he has any grievance in that behalf, it will be open to such applicant to pursue legal remedy available to him in that matter.
