Heard learned advocate Mr R.V. Deshmukh for the applicant. Admit. The Rule 3.2 which he has referred to in para 3 of the application on the basis of which he seeks to ~~be~~ justified his plea for interim relief ~~does~~ become a bar for inter division transfer. The appointment of the petitioner is admittedly of ad hoc nature and the respondent authority cannot to be said to have being guilty in reverting the petitioner and in having allowed inter divisional transfer ex-facie. For this reason, interim relief is not merited. The respondent to reply within 15 days of this order. The case be posted on 4th November, 1987 for further directions. Applicant to serve the copy of the application on respondents other than General Manager.
