Per Hon'ble Dr. R.K. Saxena

Member (J)

Shri Indravadan A. Dave filed this application challenging the punishment order dated 30-4-1986, Annexure A-7, by which his increment was withheld for two years from the date whenever it was due. The applicant had preferred first Appeal to Senior Divisional Commercial Superintendent and second to Divisional Railway Manager but they were rejected by respective authorities vide orders dated 27-10-1986, Annexure A-9 and 14-9-1987, Annexure A-11, respectively. These orders passed in two Appeals have <sup>also</sup> been challenged. Besides, the applicant has also prayed for directions to get his case considered for promotion.

2. Briefly stated the facts of the case are that the applicant was Travelling Ticket Examiner (T.T.E.) on 26-10-1985 and his duty was assigned in Sleeper Coach S/8 6-Up Saurashtra Mail. One Shri Raj Kumar got 2½ tickets reserved on 9-10-1985 for the journey to be undertaken on 26-10-1985. He got the reservation done from Marwar Pali to Birur and he had to change the train at Ahmedabad where from he had to travel in the Sleeper Coach <sup>of</sup> 6-Up Saurashtra Mail. On 26-10-1985 Shri Raj Kumar came to Ahmedabad by Ranakpur Express and he was to board Saurashtra Mail. His reservation was made in S/11 of Saurashtra Mail but when he arrived at the Station of Ahmedabad, he was informed by the Travelling Ticket Examiner of Coach S-11 that the quota of Marwar Pali was given in Coach No. 8 and, therefore, he (Shri Raj Kumar) should go to Coach No. S-8. On reaching Coach S-8

which was assigned to the applicant, Shri Rajkumar, asked for berths but the applicant looking to his chart, asked Shri Rajkumar to go to Coach No. S-11. Therefore, Shri Raj Kumar again rushed to Coach No. S-11, where the T.T.E. of the said Coach again replied that the quota of Marvar Pali had been shifted to Coach No. S-8 and, therefore, he should travel by Coach No. S-8 alone. Shri Raj Kumar again came to the applicant who was T.T.E. of Coach No. S-8 and also stated that if the berths were not allotted, compliant would be launched and the train would also be withheld. It was then that the applicant allotted the reserved berths of Shri Raj Kumar to him but he, (the applicant), also expressed that his income for that day was lost. Shri Rajkumar, again faced some problem at Bombay V.T. Station where he was to catch Mahalakshmi Express, for his onward journey. He, however, made compliant, Annexure A-1, to the Railway Minister. The said compliant was sent for inquiry and it was there upon that the explanation of the applicant was called for. Having found the explanation not satisfactory, he was served with Memorandum, Annexure A-4, <sup>at</sup> that the charges that the applicant had adopted un-helpful attitude towards the travelling public while on duty as T.T.E./L/In-charge of S-8 Coach of 6-Up Saurashtra Mail at Ahmedabad on 26-10-1985. It was also mentioned in the statement of imputations of mis-conduct or mis-behaviour that Marvar Pali quota of berths in 6-Up Saurashtra Mail <sup>was</sup> shifted from S-11 to S-8 Coach since 12-10-1985 and that change was supposed to be known to all T.T.Es/L working in 6-Up train. The applicant, however, submitted the explanation in which it was contended that he had no knowledge of the quota of Marvar Pali being shifted from Coach S-11 to S-8. In support of it, he also filed a letter of Chief Ticket Inspector, dated 23-12-1985, in which the knowledge of shifting of quota was denied by him as well. The Disciplinary Authority was not satisfied by the explanation, offered by the applicant, and ultimately passed an order of punishment, dated 30-4-1986, whereby one increment was withheld for two years. On the first appeal being preferred before, Senior Divisional Commercial Superintendent, <sup>it</sup> which was rejected on 27-10-1986. The applicant, therefore, filed second Appeal before the Divisional Railway Manager but the same was <sup>also</sup> rejected on 14-9-1987. In the meantime, promotions to Sr. Grade from amongst the T.T.Es were made but the case of the applicant was not considered on the ground that Disciplinary case of major penalty was pending against him. Therefore, feeling aggrieved by these orders, he came to the Tribunal making the aforesaid prayers.

3. The respondents contested the case by filing written statement on all important grounds of which however <sup>l</sup>important points of objection are that the applicant challenged more than one orders by one application; the applicant had knowledge of shifting of a quota of Marvar Pali from Coach S/11 to S/8 and yet his attitude towards Shri Raj Kumar was unhelpful; that the inquiry against the applicant was started on the valid grounds and the proper procedure of minor penalties was followed; the punishment of withholding of one increment for two years was passed after going through the entire record; and that the said punishment was upheld by the Appellate Authority<sup>2</sup> for valid reasons. It was also averred that the promotion of the applicant was not made because the case of major penalty was pending against him and in such<sup>a</sup> situation promotion is never considered.

4. We have heard the learned Counsel for the parties who have elaborated their points. The contention of the learned Counsel for the applicant is that the punishment order being based on no evidence and the proper procedure having not been adopted and also the defence being not considered, it may be quashed. The learned Counsel for the respondents on the other hand argued that this Tribunal cannot interfere with the punishment until and unless the procedure was found illegal. It was further contended that the evidence which was available with the Punishing Authority cannot be the subject matter of scrutiny before the Tribunal. In this connection, our attention has been drawn towards the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Union of India Vs. Upendra Singh 1994 (1) SLR 831 where it was held that the Tribunal or the High Court can interfere only if on the charges framed (read with imputations or particulars of the charges, if any) no mis-conduct or other irregularities alleged could be said to have been made out or the charges framed were contrary to any law. We are very conscious of the law laid down in this respect and we shall not travel beyond the scope which is available to the Tribunal. As is pointed out by their Lordships of Supreme Court in the case of Upendra Singh, we can make scrutiny of the fact whether there was any evidence worth supporting the charge and whether the procedure adopted was legal. There is no dispute that if the procedure adopted by the Disciplinary Authority is not legal and prejudice has been caused to the delinquent employee, the Tribunal can look into this aspect and record the findings there about.

5. In this case the punishment is of stoppage of one increment for two years. This punishment of course comes within the scope of minor penalty. The applicant has contended in para 6 (1) <sup>of the application</sup> that he was due to retire on 31-5-1988 (and he must have been retired <sup>by</sup> and he has been retired from service). The punishment order by the Disciplinary Authority as was pointed out earlier was passed on 30-4-1986. The finality of the order of punishment could be given only when the last remedy by way of second Appeal was exhausted and the order in the said Appeal was passed. There is no dispute that this second Appeal was decided on 14-9-1987. If the punishment of stoppage of increment starts from this date i.e. 14-9-1987, the punishment should have continued even beyond the date of retirement of the applicant. From this angle when we look to Rule 11 of the Railway Servants (Discipline & Appeal) Rules 1968, we come to the conclusion that the procedure was not correctly followed. No doubt Rule 11 deals with the procedure of imposing minor penalties but sub-Rule 2 of Rule 11 created one exception. It reads ;

" (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause

(b) of sub-rule (1), if in a case, it is proposed after considering the representation, if any, made by the Railway servant under clause (a) of that sub-rule to withhold increments of pay and such withholding of increments is likely to affect adversely the amount of Pension (or special contribution to Provident Fund) payable to the Railway servant or to withhold increments of pay for a period exceeding three years or to withhold increments of pay with cumulative effect for any period, an inquiry shall be held in the manner laid down in sub-rules (6) to (25) of Rules 9, before making any order imposing on the Railway servant any such penalty."

A perusal of this rule makes it quite clear that withholding of increments which is likely<sup>2</sup> to affect adversely the amount of pension or special contribution to Provident Fund payable to the Railway servant, the procedure of inquiry should be as is laid down under Rule 9. The procedure prescribed under Rule 9 is with respect to major penalties. In this way, adoption of procedure of minor penalties by the Disciplinary Authority was not correct. Assuming that the punishment started running from the date 30-4-1986, which is the date of the order of the Disciplinary Authority, the effect of the punishment continues beyond the date of retirement of the applicant. The reason for this conclusion is that the withholding of the increment had to take place from the date whenever it was due. It appears from the contents of the applications as well as the averments made in the reply of the respondents that the increment of the applicant fell due to 1st January 1987. Naturally, the second increment fell due on 1-1-1988 and the effect of withholding of that increment of 1988 shall continue for whole of the year whereas the applicant had retired on 31-5-1988.

6. It is not that this point was mentioned only in the Rules but the Railway Board had issued circulars in this regard and the Circular R.B.'s No. E(D A) 66 RG 6-13 dated 19-4-69 (NR No 4737) was issued as early as in the year 1969, making it quite clear that the penalty of withholding of increment if had affected the amount of pension, this fact must be kept into consideration. The relevant portion of the circular of the Railway Board is as below :

"Although withholding of increment temporarily or permanently is a minor penalty yet the Railway Board have laid down that an inquiry in the manner as laid down for major penalties must always be held if the penalty of withholding of increment is of the nature given below:

(a) If the increment is to be withheld permanently (having cumulative effect) or any period, whatsoever.

(b) When increment is to be withheld temporarily for a period exceeding 3 years.

(c) When the penalty of withholding of increment irrespective of the period is likely to affect adversely the amount of pension or special contribution to Provident Fund payable to the delinquent Railway servant.

It is evident from the foregoing provisions that if the penalty of withholding of increment for any period what-so-ever is to be imposed on the delinquent Railway Servant who is a pension optee during the last three years (now 10 months) of his service, it will affect the amount of his pension and as such inquiry must be held before imposing such a penalty on him. In cases where at the time of imposition of penalty of withholding of increment was not known that this would adversely affect the pension or special contribution to Provident Fund normally admissible to the Railway Servant, departmental inquiry would not be required to be held. The departmental inquiry should, therefore, be held in such cases in which at the time of imposition of penalty of withholding of increment temporarily for any period it is not known that it will adversely affect the amount of pension."

By this circular the Board also clarified that before initiating the departmental proceedings, this point must be considered and accordingly the procedure to be adopted. It was also made clear that since at the time of imposition of penalty it would not be known that this would adversely affect the pension, the departmental inquiry should not be required to be held in such cases. It is not only the Railway Servant (D&A) Rules 1968 lay down that the procedure in such cases, where pensionary benefits are going to be affected, penalty should not be of major penalty, the Railway Board has also issued circulars from time to time in this connection and yet the authorities in the case before us did not take care. Had the procedure of major penalty been adopted, the statements of the witnesses or of the defence would have been recorded and considered.

Also the show-cause notice before awarding the punishment would have been given. In this way, we find that the applicant has been greatly prejudiced by <sup>not</sup> adopting the procedure which was required, under the Rules, ~~to have been adopted.~~

7. The learned Counsel for the applicant also argued that if the Punishing Authority or the Appellate Authority does not write speaking order of punishment even then the prejudice is caused to the employee against whom the order of punishment is passed. In this case, there is no discussion of any evidence but at the same time ~~he~~ <sup>order as</sup> has been writing his speaking order. Instead of describing in words, it would be proper to reproduce the order itself. It reads as :

"You are hereby informed that the following penalty has been awarded to you; Withholding of increment falling normally whenever due for two years without further effect. This has ref. to this office memo of even no. of date 13-2-1986 and your Def. dt. 6-3-86 "speaking order" I have gone through the Defence, it is not convincing as such not accepted. He is considered responsible for the cause of compliant.

8. What appears from the perusal of the order of punishment is that either the Punishing Authority was not aware about the conotation of speaking order or <sup>it</sup> he avoided to write a speaking order. The stand as regards the order of first Appeal is almost the same. It is only three lines order. It reads as ;

" In view of the remarks of CRS-ADI the plea taken by Shri Dave appears to be an after thought. I do not find sufficient cause to revise the penalty imposed by DCS".

These order<sup>s</sup> in appeal appears to have been based on some remarks of CRS but not on the application of mind of the Appellate Authority. The contention of the respondents in their reply is that the Disciplinary Authorities are not required to record the order of punishment elaborately. We are aware of the fact that the Disciplinary authorities ~~xxx~~ cannot be expected to write judgements in the manner in which the Courts of Law do write but at the same time the purpose of writing an order is that the subject matter must be disclosed and the conclusion must have been based on some reasoning. If these basic ingredients are missing; the order even of the Disciplinary authority cannot be said to be speaking order and the prejudice is thereby definitely caused to the delinquent employee. It is not that no body in the Department knew this basic principle because when we look <sup>in</sup> to the order of the second Appeal, we do find that it is a speaking order. Since the defence of the applicant has not been considered even in this order, therefore, despite the principle of merger, we cannot hold that the applicant was not prejudiced. In this way, we find that the respondents failed to follow the procedure prescribed under the Rules and to record the material evidence and to consider the defence of the applicant. For these reasons, the orders either of the Punishing Authority or <sup>of</sup> the Appellate Authority cannot be upheld in law.

9. The learned Counsel for the applicant also pointed out that actually there was no evidence in support of the charges framed against him. If we enter into this arena and try to scrutinise the evidence whether sufficient or in-sufficient, we would be trespassing into the field of the Disciplinary Authorities. We, therefore, refrain from making any attempt of analysis or scrutiny of the evidence.

10. So far as the point of promotion not being given to the applicant is concerned, it would <sup>not</sup> be the subject matter of this application where the order of punishment has been questioned. The learned Counsel for the applicant, however, did not press this point during the arguments and we, therefore, do not express any view there about.

11. From the discussion made above, we come to the conclusion that the case of the applicant for quashing the order of punishment for failure of not adopting proper procedure, should be allowed. The Punishment Order dated 30-4-1986, the order dated 27-10-1986 in the first Appeal and the order dated 14-9-1987 in the second Appeal are quashed and set aside.
