The only ground <sup>on</sup> which the judgment of this Tribunal in O.A./306/88, is sought to be reviewed that the respondents could not bring to the notice of the Tribunal, the Railway Board Circular dated 11-4-1983 and if the said circular had been brought to the notice of the Tribunal, the Tribunals' decision would have been different. There is no reason why this circular should not have been produced and relied upon before the Tribunal and why it should now be taken note of and the judgment should be reviewed on the basis thereof. R.A. is rejected.
