ORAL ORDER

C.A.No. 20 OF 1996
in
O.A.No. 270/1988

Date: 7.5.1997.

per: Hon'ble Mr. V. Ramakrishnan, Vice Chairman.

Heard both sides. The applicants had approached the Tribunal earlier in O.A.270/88 seeking reinstatement as casual labourer and quashing of the order of their terminating the services and also seniority over people who were engaged subsequent to their initial engagement. The Tribunal was ~~hold~~ that 198 people who are juniors to the applicants were engaged while the applicants' services are terminated. The Tribunal disposed of this O.A. by its order dated 29.4.93, which reads as follows:

"Application is partly allowed. The oral termination of the applicants dated 20th May 1987 is held illegal and the same is quashed. The respondents are directed to re-engage the applicants within one month from the receipt of the order of this Tribunal without any backwages. The respondents are directed to give the seniority to the applicants prior to the date of the engagement of the juniors to the applicants and their names may be accordingly shown in the seniority list. Application is disposed of with no order as to costs."

2. The present Contempt petition has been filed with the allegation that this order has not been fully complied with by the Railway Administration inasmuch as the applicants even though they had been re-engaged had not been granted their due position in the seniority list..

3. As the only issue involved is about seniority of the applicants vis-a-vis people who were stated to be their juniors, we had asked the Railway Department to give the factual position. We find that the Railways had issued an order dated 29.4.96 as at Annexure R-13, where the seniority of the NG Staff - Mechanical Department was given. Subsequently an order dated 31.12.96 has been issued which gives the date of initial engagement of the applicants as also the dates of their regularisation and proceeds further to state that they will be given seniority prior to the date of engagement of their juniors to the applicants who were listed in Annexure A-7 of the O.A. 270/88. When the initial seniority list in the Mechanical wing was given, Mr. Xavier for the complainants contended that the applicants have been engaged in the Mechanical wing in the Bhavnagar Division and while they have been given the seniority in that wing as referred to earlier, there is no mention about the seniority of the 198 people, who are listed in Annexure A-7 of the O.A. 270/88. The Railways now submits that they maintain separate seniority list for different departments, such as Mechanical group, Civil Engineering group etc. and the applicants were initially engaged as casual labourer under the Mechanical group. ^{and} In compliance with the order of the Tribunal's, they have been given reinstatement in the same group. In the additional reply filed by them, and in para-8 of the same, they stated that after much investigation into the list of 198 persons, the Railways could trace out only 9 persons whose names and details are given in Annexure R-5. We find from the Annexure R-5 that these 9 persons are working under the permanent Way Inspector (C). However, we also find that while the applicants were engaged on various dates in May 1979, September 1978, February 1980, June 1980 etc. in the list of 9 people given at Ann. R-5, the date of initial engagement of at least 5 of them are earlier to the date of engagement of the applicants.

Mr. Vin clarifies that seniority is determined not on the basis of the date of engagement but also on the basis of the total number of days worked.

4. We take note of the fact that the Railways maintained separate seniority list for the different departments and this position was not highlighted before the Tribunal while passing the order in O.A. 270/88. A reference was made to the same in the subsequent R.A. The applicants were initially engaged in the Mechanical wing as casual labourers and we cannot fault the respondents for reengaging them in the same group. Keeping in view this fact and also the fact that despite the filing of repeated reply statement, the actual position of 198 people can not really be ascertained, we hold that the order dated 29.4.93 in O.A. 270/88, so far as it pertains to seniority should be understood as follows:

The applicants shall be regularised keeping in view the date of initial engagement and also such other parameters which are normally followed by the Railways for determining the seniority of casual labourers.

If any person in the mechanical wing, who is actually junior to the applicants is given regularisation from an earlier date, the applicants shall also be regularised from such earlier date.

Mr. Xavier submits that according to the applicants' information, there are some people who are 12 ✓

serving in the Mechanical wing, namely; Arvind
Purshottam Mehta, Sr.No. 95, Narendrakumar Lalbhai
Naik, Sr.No. 128, in Annexure A-7 of the O.A.270/88
who are actually juniors to the applicants. In view of this submissions the Railways shall investigate the position of this two persons vis-a-vis the applicant in the Mechanical wing and shall take appropriate steps in terms of the above directions.

5. With the above directions, the Contempt petition is disposed of and the alleged contemnners are discharged.
