7/7/1988

Heard Mr.V.B.Gharaniya learned advocate for the applicant. Mr.R.M.Vin learned advocate for the respondent not present. The petitioner has been ~~duly~~ convicted on criminal charges ~~by~~ the Court and on his conviction, he has been removed from service. He has appealed and the appeal has been rejected. He has filed his ~~original~~ ^{revised} application in the High Court. Until the High Court reverse~~s~~ the order of conviction it cannot be said that the order of the respondent authorities is liable to be modified or reversed because it was invalid or improper. For that reason, the Tribunal cannot admit the application at this stage. The ~~respondent~~ ^{is} authorities are at liberty to revise the orders if the petitioner succeeds in the High Court. With this observation, the petition is summarily rejected.
