CORAM : Hon'ble Mr. P.M. Joshi .. Judicial Member

29/12/1988

Heard Mr. R.V. Deshmukh, the learned counsel for the petitioner.

In this application filed under section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985, the petitioner has challenged the orders of transfer dated 22.7.1988 and subsequent order dated 2.12.1988, whereby he is transferred from Rajkot to Delhi. According to Mr. Deshmukh, his children are studying in the school <sup>are required</sup> and they ~~face~~ <sup>are required</sup> to appear at the final year examination and therefore the petitioner seeks <sup>reliefs. in terms of keeping in</sup> ~~only~~ abeyance of the said orders till the end of March, 1989 or till the examination is over. In this regard, the petitioner seems to have made representation vide his letter dated 22nd December, 1988. It seems the said representation is <sup>under</sup> ~~not~~ consideration of the respondents. It is strenuously urged by Mr. Deshmukh that the petitioner be protected for the <sup>aforsaid</sup> ~~the~~ period by way of interim relief.

Before passing interim relief as prayed for it is found <sup>expedient</sup> to hear the other side. Hence <sup>to the Respondents</sup> pending admission. Issue urgent notices/returnable on 11th January, 1989 to show cause why the interim relief as prayed for should not be granted and the application be not admitted. The case be posted on 11th January, 1989 for admission.
