ORDER

Date : 19.4.1990

Per : Hon'ble Mr. N. Dharmadan .. Judicial Member

The grievance of the applicant in this case is that he has been transferred from Dahod to Piplod and that it causes great inconveniences and it is against the circulars and guide lines dealing with the transfer. Hence, he is challenging the transfer order on various grounds. He submitted that he has only 3 years to retire and it would be inconvenient for the studies of his children. He also further submitted that his continuance in the place in which he is now working is necessary for maintaining the family ~~business~~ matters and domestic affairs. h

2. However, these are all matters which should have been placed by the applicant before the respondents for consideration in the first instance instead of approaching this Tribunal and attacking the transfer. At this stage, according to us, this application is pre-mature and it can be disposed of with a direction that the applicant will file a detailed representation stating all his grievance before the second respondent within <sup>two</sup> ~~a~~ weeks from today. If such a representation is filed, the second respondent shall consider ~~and~~ <sup>y</sup> dispose of the same taking into consideration his grievances and the averments in this application and dispose of the same in the light of the relevant guide lines and circulars dealing with the transfer within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of such a representation. The second respondent may also consider the request of the applicant to continue in the meantime in the present place in which he is now working until he takes a decision in this behalf and the disposal of the above representation in accordance to the law. With this direction, we dispose of the application. There will be no order as to costs.
