Heard Mr.M.K.Paul and Mr.B.R.Kyada, learned counsel for the applicant and the respondents.

This application has been filed with prayers that the applicant may be declared as entitled for promotion as Welder Grade III in the scale of Rs.950-1500(RP) because his junior Shri Mansukh A. stated ~~is~~ having only 10 years service though the applicant <sup>has put in 11</sup> ~~is~~ putting more <sup>13 1/2</sup> more than ~~30~~ years service in <sup>eligible 11</sup> ~~that~~ scale and payment of arrears in the higher ~~pay~~ scale from 12.7.1990.

Page 2 of the application, para 6 (i) states that the applicant <sup>was in</sup> ~~has~~ appointed as a Khalasi on 27.1.77 under IOW, Rajkot and was promoted as a Welder in class III post on adhoc basis from 17.9.1986. It is claimed that the applicant has worked as Welder upto 11.7.90.

In support of the claim <sup>are</sup> ~~which~~ enclosed copies of the orders by which the applicant was given various spells of time to work as Welder Gr.III <sup>h</sup>for the various spells. The first such order <sup>is</sup> dated 17.9.1986 for a period of six weeks. The second order is for 42 days and remaining orders dated 9.6.1987, 8.2.88, 6.6.88, 6.7.88, 6.12.88 and 25.4.1989 <sup>h</sup>were also for 42 days each.

As such the applicant has worked for short spells during this period as Welder Gr.III and the claim in the application as if he had been continuously working from 17.9.1986 as Welder Gr.III is not supported by the evidence. That apart, <sup>the</sup> ~~there~~ <sup>h</sup>is law settled on the subject is that any adhoc opportunities for officiation in higher post <sup>do</sup> ~~did~~ <sup>h</sup>not give any right to count the period <sup>so</sup> spent

We find that the application lacking <sup>in</sup> ~~no~~ <sup>h</sup>merit and <sup>any</sup> ~~no~~ order as to costs.
