The above application has been filed challenging the order of removal. It is to be noted that the applicant had filed the application O.A./277/87, <sup>Very</sup> challenging the order of removal which was dismissed ^ by Order dated 12-7-1988. The applicant has now come forward with the same relief on the ground that new points had come to light. We are unable to agree. Once the matter had been decided by this Tribunal, it is not open to us to entertain another application on the same cause of action merely on the ground that certain new points are to be argued. The matter is barred by constructive res judicata. Hence the application is devoid of merit and it is accordingly dismissed.
