O.A.No. 177 of 1992

Date : 31.3.1992

Per : Hon'ble Shri R. Venkatesan : Member (A)

The applicant argued his case in person. This is a matter where disciplinary proceedings have ~~not~~ been initiated against the applicant and charge sheet has been issued to him and inquiry held. The inquiry report has been supplied to him in February, 1992.

The applicant has submitted <sup>his</sup> ~~the~~ representation B2 against the findings in the inquiry report on 3.3.1992. The representation is yet to be disposed of by the respondents. In the meanwhile the applicant has come before this Tribunal with <sup>the</sup> ~~prayer~~ to set aside the charge sheet and findings of the inquiry officer.

2. The applicant contends that even though he has not exhausted the remedies as per rules, this is a fit case for interference of the Tribunal on account of the following factors :-

1. Disciplinary proceedings have not been initiated by authority who is competent.
2. The necessary documents requested by him have not been supplied to him.
3. He has not been given adequate time by the inquiry officer.
4. Certain representations made by him in July 1991 and later have not been considered by the respondents, <sup>who</sup> ~~and~~ have acted B3 malafide according to him.

3. We find that the applicant has participated in the inquiry and has also submitted his representation against the report of the inquiry in which he has raised <sup>all</sup> ~~and~~ the above points. He has to wait B2 for appropriate orders from the disciplinary authority taking into consideration the various points raised by him. We do not consider that the circumstances are so extra-ordinary as to fall for the interference of the Tribunal at this stage as contended by the applicant.

4. We therefore dismiss this application as being premature. This will not preclude the applicant from approaching this Tribunal if he does not receive satisfaction at the hands of the respondents, at the appropriate time.
