ORAL JUDGEMENT

In

O.A. 482 of 1992

Date: 15-4-1993

Per Hon'ble Shri N.B. Patel Vice Chairman

Heard, Shri Desai advocate for the applicant and Shri Shevde and Shri Akil Kureshi advocates for the respondents.
In this case, the failure report of the Conciliation Officer is ^{based} ~~passed~~ only on the ground that the Railway authority^{ies} did not participated in the conciliation proceedings before him. On instructions from the respondent no.3, the learned advocate Mr. Shevde states that the Railway administration is now prepared to participate in the Conciliation proceedings if they are revived. Accordingly, the Conciliation Officer, i.e., the Assistant Labour Commissioner (Central), is directed to revive the Conciliation proceedings before him. He is also directed to expedite the proceedings before him.

2. In view of this, Mr. Desai seeks permission to withdraw the application at this stage. Permission granted. The matter is disposed of as having been withdrawn.
 No order as to costs.
