the respondents.

2. The applicant was provisionally appointed on a temporary basis as Branch Post-master, Chuva, which is in account with Tharad Post Office. While so, the Annexure A/1 order dated 27.11.1992 has been issued by the fifth respondent, (The Supdt. of Post Offices, Banaskantha Dn., Palanpur- 385 001), directing that the charge of Branch Postmaster should be handed over to Punamchand Dhanraj Pandya, (Respondent no. 4) who is also only a provisional candidate and has not been regularly selected for appointment to this post. A direction was given to the Mail Oversear, Turad to arrange to take over charge from the applicant, and handed ^u ~~over~~ ₁ over to the fourth respondent on a provisional and temporary basis.

3. It is in this circumstance, that the applicant has filed this application for a direction to quash this impugned Annexure A/1 direction to the Mail Oversear and to give a direction to the respondents to continue the applicant in service and regularise his service as EDBPM.

4. When the application was admitted an interim order was issued to the fifth respondent to maintain status quo of the applicant as on 3.12.1992 till further directions were issued. By virtue of this interim order, the applicant is still continuing on the post.

5. The matter came up for further directions today. We have heard the learned counsel for the Govt. respondents. The facts narrated are not disputed. Respondent no. 5 was not present and he cannot put up a better defence than the Government. We are of the view that it is entirely improper to replace a provisional appointee like the applicant by another person who is also a provisional appointee. The provisional appointment of the applicant is stated to be pending regular selection. Therefore, Govt. have a right to carry out a selection and induct the person regularly selected to this post and the applicant has to give way for his appointment. However, Govt. cannot induct another provisional appointee in his place.

6. In this view of the matter, this application deserves to be partly allowed. We do so by quashing the Annexure A/1 dated 22.11.1992. We make it clear that the applicant's incumbency shall not be disturbed except by a person the appointment of a regularly selected/as Branch Post Master and in accordance with law.

7. Application is disposed of accordingly.
