ORAL JUDGEMENT

In

O.A. 37 of 1992

Date: 2-11-1993

Per Hon'ble Shri N.B. Patel Vice Chairman.

The applicant was appointed as Lower Division Clerk in the office of the respondent no.3 on purely temporary and adhoc basis by order dated January 3 1991, Annexure A-2. The applicant was not selected for appointment to the post of L.D.C. in a regular way, but as regularly selected candidates were not available for appointment to the post, she was appointed on purely adhoc basis in the sense that her appointment was to continue till a regularly selected candidate was available. The applicant's employment is terminated and it is the case of the applicant that her services are terminated, even though regularly selected candidate is not available for the post occupied by her on adhoc basis.

2. In the reply, it is stated that the applicant has subsequently appeared at the regular selection test and has failed. However, it was conceded that, as yet, no regularly selected candidate is available to replace the applicant. It appears that some other persons had to be appointed on adhoc basis after termination of the services of the applicant.

3. The aforesaid being the undisputed facts of the case, there cannot be any doubt that the termination of the employment of the applicant before any regularly selected candidate was available was bad. The termination is, therefore, got to be set aside and the respondents have to be directed to reinstate the applicant in service. However, in the circumstances of the case, there is no question of granting continuity of service to the applicant nor is it a case where back-wages should be awarded to the applicant.

4. In the result, therefore, the application is allowed and the respondents are directed to reinstate the applicant, within three weeks of the receipt of a copy of this judgement, as Lower Division Clerk on adhoc basis and on the same terms on which she was employed till her termination, including the term that her appointment will last till a regularly selected candidate was available. Prayer regarding grant of continuity of service and back-wages is rejected. No order as to costs.
