R.A.38/94 in

O.A.423/92

Date: 21.11.94.

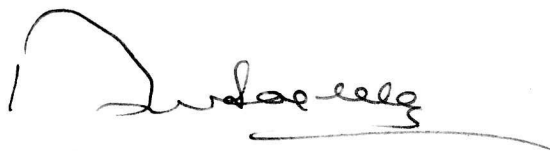

Per : Hon'ble Dr.R.K.Saxena, Member (J)

By this review application, firstly it has been urged that the ratio of the judgment in the case T.N. Bhargava vs. Union of India of Jabalpur Bench has not been properly appreciated; and secondly it is pointed out that in last para of the judgment, ' there is merit in the case', has been observed <sup>and</sup> ~~that~~ yet the application is rejected.

2. We do not find that the ratio of T.N.Bhargava's decision was not understood. Moreover, that is no ground for review.

3. So far the second ground is concerned, it may be made clear that the discussion of the facts and cited case-law lead to one and the same conclusion that there was no substance in the case. If the word ' no' before ' merit' is omitted in the hand written judgment of twelve pages, and the application was rejected, it shall be deemed slip of pen. Thus it is also no ground of review. The application stands rejected.
