Learned advocates are present. Heard Mr.I.M.Pandya for the applicant. Mr.Akil Kureshi for the respondents waives notice and appears.

2. We admit this matter and we dispose of this matter by giving directions to the respondents.

3. The learned advocate for the applicant agrees to supply ^{re} copy of this O.A. to the learned advocate for the respondents, Mr.Akil Kureshi within 2 days. The Registry to return the copy to him to enable learned advocate Mr. Pandya for the applicant to hand over the copy to learned advocate Mr. Kureshi.

4. It is the case of the applicant that the Disciplinary Enquiry against him by the respondents is relating to the alleged incident of the year 1982-83. The charge sheet issued to ~~mx~~ the applicant is produced at Annexure A, which is of May, 1993. The learned advocate for the applicant submits that the respondents have at Annexure 3, given the list of documents by which the respondents want to prove the articles of charge sheet against the applicant. He submits that the respondents have given copies of documents of that list except sr.no.5, and according to him, this is an important document to prepare the statement of defence. At this stage, we have no material to verify whether this is such a document without which a statement of defence cannot be prepared by the applicant. However, the respondents may consider this point and may give copy of this document at sr.no.5. of the list or may give the reasons why they cannot give the copy of the said document. The applicant has already written a letter at Annexure A-1, to the respondents on 16/7/1993. The respondents to decide this point of giving copy of the said document within 15 days from the date of the receipt of this order. The applicant then to file statement of defence at the earliest. Though, at this stage, we cannot give the relief which is sought by the applicant by quashing the enquiry on the ground of delay, but we can certainly direct the respondents to complete the enquiry within 6 months from the date of receipt of our order. The application is therefore, disposed of with the above directions regarding the supply of the copy of the document at sr.no.5. of the list Annexure 3, and that the respondents to complete the enquiry against the applicant within 6 months from the receipt of our order. It would be in the interest of applicant to give full co-operation to the respondents in proceeding further with the enquiry. We hope that ~~the~~ unnecessary adjournments will not be asked by him in the proceedings. The application is disposed of accordingly to the above directions. The applicant would be entitled to take further steps on completion of the enquiry.
