MA 143/93

Date	Office Report	Order
13-10-1993		Heard Mr. Pathak and Mr. Kureshi. In this case the applicant has claimed two unconnected reliefs, namely in respect of his promotion to the post of R.M. and in respect of the pay scale to which he is entitled with effect from 16-10-1981. Mr. Pathak, for the applicant, states that in the present application, the applicant would press prayer no.4 of the application, which relates to his grievance regarding pay scale available to him. He states that the applicant will file a separate application, sofaras, the relief regarding his promotion and consequential reliefs i.e. reliefs no. 1,2,3,& 5, are concerned. The present application will, therefore, be confined to and proceeded with only in respect of relief no.4 claimed in the application. The applicant, if thought fit by him, may file a separate application in respect of his other grievance regarding his non-promotion. Admitted. Reply to be * filed within three weeks. If reply is filed within the said stipulated period, rejoinder may be filed within one week after the filing of the reply. Reply and rejoinder be accordingly filed in the office. Whether reply and rejoinder are filed or not within the stipulated period, the matter may be fixed for final hearing in due course by the Office.    (V.
