O R D E R ( By Circulation )

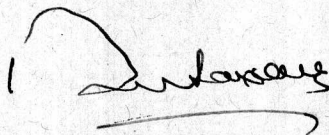

By Hon'ble Dr. R.K. Saxena, Member ( J )

This review application no.56 of 1995 has been moved in the O.A. No.713 of 1993 which was decided by us on 19.7.1994. The main O.A. was directed against the Order dated 10.5.1993 whereby the applicant was removed from service and also against the appellate order whereby the order of removal was maintained. On the consideration of the facts, we had quashed and set aside the order of removal because the impugned order was found punitive in nature.

2. The grounds taken in the review application is that order of re-instatement and payment of back-wages with continuity in service, was not passed whereas such orders ought to have been passed when the order of removal or discontinuation from the service has been quashed and set aside, the consequential benefits shall follow. It is not necessary that the specific order of re-instatement and other benefits, be passed. Thus, we do not see any illegality in the Judgment dated 19.7.1994 and, therefore, dismissed<sup>2</sup> the review application.
