1	8.4.87	In this application under section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985, the petitioner seeks intervention of this Tribunal to direct the respondents- Opp. Parties to transfer the petitioner from Jeypore to Cuttack as the wife of the petitioner recently died because of gas cylinder having been exploded. It is further submitted by the petitioner that he has two kids and it is very difficult on his part to look after them as he has no relation at Jeypore to look after the kids during the absence of the petitioner from his residence when he is to attend the official work. We can well imagine that there would be a serious hampering in the discharge of official duties by the petitioner because welfare of the kids will be of paramount consideration to the petitioner. All the same, we are not inclined to pass any orders in this application because transferring a particular employee from one station to the other is within the discretion and competence of the competent authorities. We do not like to transgress upon his jurisdiction. However, we feel that	For Admission &amp; Disposal order. Bench 6/4
