The applicants are 3 in number and their case, shorn of unnecessary details, is that they have been working in the Telecommunication Department since 1982 and continuously at least from 1987. It is contended by Sri Roy that the Department has taken a decision which may ultimately throwout the petitioners though they have been rendering service continuously for considerable time without regularisation. They have been clasified as casual workers.

2. After having heard Mr.Ganeswar Rath, learned Counsel for the Union of India, and Mr.P.K.Roy, learned Counsel for the applicant and following the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, it has also to be directed, as in other case we have done, that a scheme be prepared for absorbing the casual workers according to availability of vacancies and the absorption be made in order of seniority after testing the suitability for the job.

3. Accordingly the case is disposed of leaving the parties to bear their own costs.
