-----
CORAM:

THE HONOURABLE MR. K. P. ACHARYA, VICE CHAIRMAN AND

THE HONOURABLE MR. H. RAJENDRA PRASAD, MEMBER (ADMN.)
-----

J U D G M E N T

K. P. ACHARYA, V. C.

The petitioner was working as Poultry attendant on casual basis in the Random Sample Poultry Performance Testing Centre at Bhubaneswar. Petitioner claims regularisation of her services. Hence this application has been filed with the aforesaid prayer.

2. In their counter, the opposite parties maintained that the petitioner was working as daily rated casual labourer for a particular period. She has been disengaged with effect from 1.10.1990. It is further maintained by the Opposite Parties that the case being devoid of merit is liable to be dismissed.

3. We have heard Mr. Deepak Misra learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Ashok Misra learned Sr. Standing Counsel (Central). We would direct that as and when work is available, the same be entrusted to the petitioner. As regards regularisation, whenever there is regular vacancy, the petitioner may make an application and her application be considered along with others and whoever is found to be suitable, he/she may be appointed.

4. Thus, the application is accordingly disposed of leaving the parties to bear their own costs.
