JUDGMENT

MR. K.P. ACHARYA, VICE-CHAIRMAN: We have heard Mr. Ganeswar Rath, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Ashok Mishra, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the opposite parties.

2. The only observation we can make is that the competent authority may sympathetically consider the case of the petitioner, who is a lady having seven children for giving her some work on casual basis, as and when work is available under Opposite Party No.3 and we would make it clear that this will not give any right to the petitioner to claim for regularisation. We are conscious of the fact that the son of the petitioner has already received appointment in Saha Centre. Thus the original application is accordingly disposed of. No costs.
