JUDGMENT

MR. K. P. ACHARYA, VICE-CHAIRMAN, In this case we have heard Mr. R. N. Naik, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr. A. K. Mishra, learned Standing Counsel. Grievance of the petitioner relates to non-consideration of his case for appointment to the post of E.D.B.P.M., in Dakhiradas Branch Office. Admittedly the case of the petitioner was not considered (even though he had applied) due to non-submission of income certificate. However, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that this inadvertent mistake should be condoned. Further he submitted that the selection process has not yet been completed. Hence we direct that the matter be re-opened and the case of all the candidates including that of the petitioner be reconsidered, if the petitioner files his income certificate before the competent authority within three weeks from to-day, failing which the case of the petitioner shall not be considered. The competent authority would then pass necessary orders according to law selecting the suitable candidate. Thus the application is accordingly disposed of leaving the parties to bear their respective cost.
