JUDGMENT

MR.K.P.ACHARYA, VICE-CHAIRMAN, We have heard Mr.D.N.Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioners and Mr.Akhaya Mishra, learned Standing Counsel. The case of the petitioners be considered and suitability be adjudged in respect of consideration of different candidates for the 85 posts - for which sanction has been received by the departmental authorities. Mr.Akhaya Mishra, learned Standing Counsel submitted that after appointment order has been issued against 106 incumbents, in respect of sanctioned posts of 106 in number, certain incumbents, who were found to be suitable are in the waiting list. Mr.Mishra submitted that the departmental authority may be allowed to appoint those candidates against these 85 posts. Merit of the petitioners be adjudged and in case found to be suitable, they may also be enlisted in the panel and appointment be made to these 85 posts according to seriological list, in which different candidates have been placed according to their merit. Thus the original application is accordingly disposed of leaving the parties to bear their own cost.

2. Mr.Akhaya Mishra informed us that Employment Exchange has not been requested to sponsor any names. Therefore, directions contained above be given effect to. No further orders are necessary in Misc.application No.375/93, which is disposed of accordingly.
