(ORAL)

MR. MANORANJAN MOHANTY, MEMBER (JUDICIAL) :

Applicant, a Casual labourer in Postal Department, filed this Original Application to get temporary status/regularisation in permanent establishment. The Advocate for the Applicant produces before us a letter from the Superintending Engineer, Postal Civil Circle, Patna addressed to the Executive Engineer of Postal Civil Division, Cuttack on 24th July, 1998. In this letter, the Superintending Engineer, suggested to grant temporary status to the Applicant. It is not known as to whether, temporary status has been granted as yet, or not. Neither the Advocate for the Applicant, nor the Learned Additional Standing Counsel Mr. Jena, are ~~not~~ in a position to state as to whether temporary status has already been given to the Applicant or not as yet.

2. In the aforesaid premises, without granting any further time to the either parties, we direct the Respondents to grant temporary status to the Applicant, if it has not yet been granted and to give him the consequential benefits arising out of the temporary status. Upon giving temporary status to the Applicant, the Respondents should also consider his case for giving him regularisation in Gr. D post after following due formalities.

3. The Original Application is accordingly allowed. There shall be no order as to costs.
