2	25.11.94	Heard Shri D.P. Dhalasamant, learned counsel for the petitioner. This is basically an internal matter concern- ing the Postal and Telecommunication Department. According to agreed arrangements both Departments have to release some quarters in favour of each other, as and when they fell vacant. Such a situation may have arisen with the retirement of Shri N.K. Patnaik, Group D Official, Bhubaneswar GPO, who is said to have retired in the April, 1993. From the correspondence annexed to this applica- tion it is seen that the CGMT proposes to allot this quarter to the present applicant in case it is released by the Postal Department. It is not for this Tribunal to go into the merits or mutual claims of the departments since these are matters to be sorted out between themselves. Inasmuch as one seems to exist a prima-facie case for releasing at least one Type I quarter currently under the occupation of the	In this application up 19 has been filed for allotment of quarter. for a direction re: allotment of quarter.
