7	31.1.96	Heard Shri N. Panda, learned counsel for the petitioners, and Shri D.N. Mishra, learned counsel for the respondents. In this case the grievance of the applicants is that they have not received their pay for the period 1st October, 1994 to 19th December, 1994. It would appear that these applicants' transfer was upheld in O.A. Nos. 453/94 and 473/94 vide the judgment of this Tribunal on 13.9.1994. There is some dispute between the parties regarding the actual date of their relief after the disposal of the Original Application. Be that as it may, the applicants claim that they have been performing their duties continuously either under C.A.O., Bhubaneswar, or under Sr.D.E.N. (Coordination) S.E. Railway, Khurda Road, during the period. [Signature] In view of the fact that they shall obviously be entitled to pay and allowances, if otherwise admissible, and if they have performed any official duties during the period, it is hereby directed that the applicants shall submit a representation to the Senior D.E.N. (Coordination) S.E. Railway, Khurda Road Division, within 10 days from to-day. The Senior D.E.N. (Coordination) shall have the matter looked into and liaise with the C.A.O., Bhubaneswar, and also obtain sanction of the General Manager, S.E.
