

NOTES OF THE REGISTRY

ORDERS OF THE TRIBUNAL

Order dated 3.4.2002

Heard Shri P.K.Padhi, the learned counsel for the Applicant and Shri J.K.Nayak, the learned Addl.Standing Counsel for the Respondents and perused the records.

In this O.A., Applicant, is a departmental Sub Post Master, posted in a remote village, Nachhipur under Bolangir Division of Orissa. He has been asked by the departmental authorities to stay <sup>/reside</sup> in the house where the Post Office is functioning and as a consequence he is not being paid the house rent allowance. It is the case of the applicant that the house in which he has been asked to reside is not really habitable <sup>for Residence.</sup> ~~one~~ The minimum facilities, like water and lavatory are not available in that premises, for which he had to take a separate house on rent for his residential accommodation. This aspect of the matter has not been disputed by the Respondents in their counter. Since the applicant is not residing in a rent free quarters, he is entitled to house rent allowance.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and on perusal of the pleadings placed before me, I direct the Respondents to grant house rent allowance to the applicant; <sup>he is</sup> for ~~his~~ not occupying any rent free quarters befitting for human habitation, being provided by the Department. While giving this direction to the Respondents, Shri Padhi for the applicant drew my attention to a judgment dated 24.7.2001 passed by a Division Bench of this Tribunal in O.A.614/98, wherein, in a similar circumstance
