2. ORDER DATED 15-7-2003.

Heard Mr. J. N. Mohanty, learned Counsel for the Applicant.

By filing the present Original Application, the Applicant has prayed the Tribunal to quash the order dated 10.1.2003 issued by the Respondents taking the regular service of the applicant below ten years and therefore, declaring him as not eligible for grant of pension.
In the said letter, the Respondents have disclosed given in details that the Applicant having been appointed as a regular CPC gangman in the scale of Rs. 775-1025/- w.e.f. 11.5.1990 and having been posted as regular gangman w.e.f. 7.1.1996, his total service period was falling short of ten years and net qualifying service for the purpose of grant of pension in terms of rule 69(b) of Railway Services (Pension) Rules, 1993. They have also averred that considering his service period in different status i.e. both casual and regular, he had not completed ten years net qualifying service to be eligible for pensionary benefits. The applicant while ventilating his grievances against this order of the Respondents, has not filed any documentary evidence to show that the total period of service rendered by him under the railways, both his casual service as well as regular service comes to more than ten years for making him eligible pension
