and requested that authorities for a resolution. His case is that so far ~~his~~ he has not been obliged with any response. Be that as it may, the applicant has rushed to the Tribunal without exhausting the departmental remedy. If he felt that there has been some delay in disposal of his representation, he should have ventilated his grievance before the next higher authority, i.e., Director of Postal Services. As the departmental remedy is still available with him, in the fitness of things, I direct the applicant to submit a representation before the Director of Postal Services, HQ, Office of the C.P.M.G., Bhubaneswar for redressal of his grievance and in the event such a representation is filed, the D.P.S. should dispose of the same within a period of 45 days from the date of receipt of such representation.

With the above observation and direction, this O.A. is disposed of at the stage of admission.

A copy of this order along with copy of the O.A. be sent to the Director of Postal Services, Office of the CPMG, Orissa Circle, Bhubaneswar for compliance.
