NOTES OF THE REGISTRY

ORDERS OF THE TRIBUNAL

2. ORDER DATED 28.10.2004.

None consideration of the grievances of the Applicant as raised in his representation at Annexure-A/12 series(at pages 44 to 47 of this O.A.) is the subject matter of this Original Application under section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act,1985.

Applicant having faced the recruitment process expected regularisation of his promotion but there being delayed in conferring the promotion,he represented to his authorities and,no heed having been paid to his grievances,he has approached this Tribunal in the present O.A.

Nobody in Govt.service has got a right to get any promotion.But under the constitutional mandate, a Govt.servant has a right ^{to be} ~~for~~ considered for promotion in terms of the relevant recruitment rules/service rules.

In the present case,the Applicant has raised a grievance that his case has not received proper/due consideration for promotion;for which he is in a very precarious condition during his employment.

In the aforesaid premises,
