tests ^{and} that he was called to produce his original certificates for verification that was also taken on 01.10.04. It has been alleged that after verifying all his original testimonials, the verifying authorities told him, verbally, that he has been dis-qualified. It has been alleged further that after that date (01.10.04), Applicant repeatedly approached the Authorities (by submitting representa-he approached this Tribunal in an earlier O.A.No.

with liberty to approach this Tribunal again. It appears, on 05.09.05, Applicant submitted a represe-

East Coast Railways and that, without hearing anything from the Respondents side, he has again filed the present O.A.No. 200/06 for redressal of his grievances.

Heard Mr. D.B. Padhi, Id. Counsel appearing for the Applicant and Mr. R.C. Rath, Id. Standing Counsel for the Railways; on whom a copy of this O.A. had already been served.

Since it is alleged by the Applicant that ^{since} he came out successfully in the Physical Test and also in the Written Test and that ^{since} he was called for verification of his original Documents/testimonials, the Respondents/the Recruiting Authorities are under obligation to intimate him as to what had happened to his case. It appears, as disclosed by the Applicant, he was informed by the testimonials verifying authorities that he was disqualified.
Yet the reasons for his dis-qualification ought to
