Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985, has sought for direction to Respondents to get an employment under the Railways. It has been alleged in the O.A. that no heed has been paid to his grievance for an employment and that is why he has ~~fixed~~ approached this Tribunal.

Having heard the learned counsels of both sides, Respondents/Railways are directed to treat this Original Application as a consolidated representation of the Applicant and consider his grievances as raised in this O.A. and in the representation enclosed thereto and redress the said grievances of the Applicant within a period of three months from the date of receipt of copies of this order. Since it is the case of the Applicant that he had served the Railways ^{for} more than 957 days; while considering the case of the Applicant, as directed above; Respondents/Railways should give due sympathetic consideration to his 957 days of work rendered by the Applicant.

Send copies of this order along with copies of the O.A. to Respondents and free copies of this order be made available to the learned counsels of both sides.

On receipt of a copy of this order the Applicant should approach Res.No.2 within a period of two weeks and place all the materials before Res.2 to substantiate his case.
