ORDER

MR.C.R.MOHAPATRA, MEMBER (A):

The case of the Applicants, in nutshell is that Senior Divisional Personnel Officer, ECoRly, invited applications from Gr.D employees working in all the Departments of KUR Divn of ECoRly for filing up of 25 vacancies of Jr. Clerk Cum Typist (UR-19, SC-4 & ST-2) coming under 33 1/3% Departmental Promotion Quota vide Notification dated 02-12-2009. The names of the Applicants were placed in the list of eligible candidates to appear at the test scheduled to be held on 03-10-2010 and supplementary test on 10-10-2010 and the immediate authority of these candidates ^{were} advised by the Sr.DSTE/ECorly/KUR to spare the candidates belonging to reserved community to undergo pre-selection coaching for a period of 3 to 4 weeks as provided under the Rules. Subsequently vide notification dated 29.9.2010 (Annexure-A/4) the names of the Applicants were deleted from the eligible list. Being aggrieved with the notification dated 29.9.2010 (Annexure-A/4) the Applicants submitted representation. Thereafter, all the 11 (eleven) Applicants who are working as Khalasi under the Senior Signal & Telecom Engineer and posted at different places within the jurisdiction of ECoRailway, ~~they~~ have filed this OA jointly seeking declaration that the action of the Respondents in making them ineligible is not sustainable and accordingly they pray to quash the ineligibility list prepared by the Respondents vide Notification No.P3/20/Jr.Clerk Cum Typist/33 1/3/DPQ/Sel/10 dated 29.9.2010 (Annexure-A/4) in so far as Applicants are concerned.

L

2. The Respondents in their counter have stated that the Khalasi of S&T Department were inadvertently notified to be eligible vide notification dated 02-12-2009 and provisionally included in the list of eligible candidates to appear at the test. The Selection was meant for the Gr.D employees who do not have any channel of promotion. But as per the Estt. Srl. No. EPS No. 7/2005 Khalasis in S&T Department have their own channel of promotion and as such they are not entitled to sit in the examination. This inadvertent mistake having come to the notice at a subsequent stage was rectified through corrigendum dated 17.12.2009 and 19.12.2009 and accordingly the names of the Khalasis of S&T provisionally included in the list of eligible candidates were deleted. Accordingly, Respondents have contended that inclusion of the names of the applicant cannot give them any right to appear at the test since they are not at all eligible. As such, they have prayed for dismissal of this OA.

3. Applicants have filed their rejoinder reiterating the stand taken in the OA that the Khalasis of S&T Department have no channel of promotion.

4. Heard Learned Counsel for both sides and perused the materials placed on record. By filing copy of RBE No.70/2005 dated 19.05.2005 supported by orders in which some of the Khalasis belonging to S&T Department have been promoted to other posts, Respondents' Counsel controverted the stand of the Applicants that they do not have their own channel of promotion. We have perused the RBEs and order of promotions filed by Respondents' Counsel so also the objection filed by the Applicants' Counsel. In view of the Rules and orders showing that the Khalasis of S&T have been promoted, we have no hesitation to hold that there is no flaw in the decision of the Respondents in excluding the applicants being ineligible to appear at the test.

5. In view of the above, this OA is held to be without any merit and is accordingly dismissed by leaving the parties to bear their own costs.
