By filing this OA, while the Applicants challenge their order of reversion by filing MA No. 607 of 2010 they have prayed for permission to prosecute this OA jointly and in MA No. 50 of 2011 they have prayed to condone the delay. Heard Learned Counsel for both sides both on the OA & MAs.

At the outset it was submitted by Learned Counsel for the Applicants that this OA may be disposed of at this admission stage by granting liberty to him to make an exhaustive representation to the Respondent No.2 within a period of fifteen days and the Respondent No.2 may be directed to dispose of the same within a stipulated period. This was not disputed by Mr. Ojha, Learned Standing Counsel for the Railway and appearing on notice for the Respondents in this case.

3. Though no leave is necessary in this regard, yet as agreed to by learned Counsel for both sides, without expressing any opinion on the merit of the OA and the MA No. 50/2011 (for condonation of delay), this OA is disposed of at this admission
