When the matter was called for the second time at 1.14 PM none appears for the applicant. The applicant himself was also not present. This is a very old matter of 1983, which was transferred by the High Court only in 1996. Thereafter, a notice was issued on 25.3.97 by registered post intimating both the parties about the transfer of the case and fixation of the date of hearing. We find that earlier on three consecutive occasions none appeared for the applicant. We are, therefore, satisfied that the applicant is no longer interested in pursuing the case. Hence the application is dismissed for default.
