B.C.Sarma, AM.

1. When the matter was called for the second time today at 2-47 p.m. none appears for the applicants. The applicants themselves were also not present in the court. We find that ^{/after} the case was transferred from High Court in 1996, a notice was issued by the Registry by registered post on 22.4.1997 on the applicant but we find that none appeared for the applicants on earlier 3 consecutive occasions.

2. We are thus satisfied that the applicants are no longer interested in pursuing the matter. The application is dismissed for default without passing any order as to costs. Mr. Arora, Id. Counsel is present for the respondents.
