S.Dasgupta, A.M.

We have heard the ld. counsel for both the parties and perused the pleadings on record.

2. The applicant in this case has sought for a direction on the respondents to give an appointment on compassionate ground. His case is that his father was a Railway employee and he died in harness in 1993. It is stated that thereafter his request for appointment on compassionate ground in accordance with the extent rules in this regard has not been considered so far.

3. The respondents have not filed any reply despite a number of opportunities. The material averments in the Original Application are therefore ^{Uncontested} uncontroverted. However, ld. counsel for the respondents also submits that he has no instruction in this matter.

4. In the circumstances we dispose of this application with a direction to the respondents to consider the request of the applicant for compassionate appointment based on the facts and grounds stated in the Original Application and also various representations annexed to the
