O R D E R

B.C. Sarma, AM

When the matter was called for second time at 4-07 p.m., none appears for the applicant and the applicant himself was also not present. We find that the notice dated 29.5.97 was issued on both the parties after the matter was transferred from the Hon'ble High Court. Despite that none appears for the applicant. We are, therefore, satisfied that the applicant is no longer interested in pursuing the matter and, therefore, it is dismissed for default. None appears for the respondents.
