When the matter was called for the second time at 3.25 p.m. none appears for the applicant. The applicant himself was also not present. We find that after the matter was transferred to this Tribunal a registered notice with A/D was issued on 29.9.97 intimating to both the parties about the next date of hearing. But despite that on several consecutive occasions none appears for the applicant. The application is, therefore, dismissed for default. Mrs. Bhattacharyya is present for the respondents.
