ORDER

Per Mr. N.D. Dayal, A.M.

Heard Mr. P.C. Das,ld. counsel for the applicant and Mr. B.K. Chatterjee, ld. counsel for the alleged contemnners.

2. Ld. counsel for the respondents submits that the deceased Government servant expired on 16.5.1995 as appears from the death certificate. It is further stated that the persons who were directed to receive the terminal benefits were born in 1958 and 1964 and as such by 1995 they were beyond the age upto which the family pension is admissible.

3. Ld. counsel for the applicant in the CPC submits that all the terminal benefits of the deceased employee have been received except the family pension. Ld. counsel for the applicant further submits that no interest has been paid on terminal benefits.

4. Ld. counsel for the respondents has placed a money receipt dated 7.6.06 whereby interest was paid on terminal benefits at the rate of 6% for the period beyond 2 months in terms of the orders passed by the Tribunal.

As such contempt does not lie and it is hereby dropped. No order as to cost.
