ORDER

(Per Hon'ble Mr. A.K. Misra)

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

2. The learned counsel for the present applicant submits that by granting the stay order dated 18.3.1998, the right of the applicant has been affected adversely and for just decision of the O.A, he is a necessary party in the main application. The learned counsel for the applicant in O.A. has opposed the contention of the learned counsel for the present applicant. The learned counsel for the official respondents has no objection if the applicant in this M.A. is made a party in the O.A.

3. We have considered the facts of the case. The applicant was declared successful in the written examination as is clear from Annexure A/3 dated 7.6.96 filed by the original applicant, but he was not empanelled as per Annexure A/1 dated 4/8.7.96 because it appears that three persons had only qualified in the viva voce test. The learned counsel for the present applicant submits that his result was not declared by the official respondents for some unknown reasons.

4. The panel Annexure A/1 was declared on 4/8.7.1996 and the applicant has moved this M.A. for making him as a party on 23.3.1998. If the rights of the applicant were adversely affected for not empanelling him what he was doing for more than 1½ years. There is no explanation for this delay. However, the learned counsel for the present applicant submits that in a similar case and similarly circumstanced an applicant has been made as party in O.A. No. 303/96, therefore, the applicant in this M.A. be made as party to the main application.

5. We have considered this prayer. In our opinion, each case is guided by its own merits and facts. At this juncture, we are not going to examine as to what were the facts which are said to be similar to this so as to make the present applicant as party to the O.A. In our view, the rights of the applicant because of the pendency of the present O.A. and in view of the interim order 18.3.1998 passed in O.A. No. 221/96 are not affected. Therefore, in our opinion, for just decision of the O.A., the present applicant is not a necessary party and the M.A. is liable to be rejected and is accordingly rejected at the stage of admission itself.
